

Euro 08 Roster Update

UEFA Euro 2008: 23-man squads roster update!
Klaus Ganer

All 16 competing nations at UEFA EURO 2008™; have submitted their finalised 23-man squad lists to UEFA. These rosters will also be available for UEFA Euro 2008 for Playstation 3 and Xbox 360 in the beginning of June. FIFA Informer has spoken to Bruno Amata from the FIFA Data Collection Group in Vancouver.

How many new players will be included in the update?
The squad update will see the addition of 59 new players.

Has the ratings changed?
We didn't update the player ratings and we kept the same team ratings.

Which country has improved the most after the Euro roster update?
Talking about the countries qualified for the Euro, the teams who got the most players added are Spain and Turkey (5 new players). It is followed by Germany and Romania (4 new players). About countries not qualified to the Euro, Republic of Ireland gets 8 new players. Since we haven't changed/updated any team ratings, no country has improved in this area.

Will there be other fixes in the Euro roster update patch?
The main goal of the squad update is to get all teams qualified for the Euro up to date (list of 23 players along with correct jersey numbers).

Who will win Euro 2008?
FRANCE!

Countdown begins
There are just 10 days to go until kick-off and the countdown begins in earnest now that all 368 competing players have been named. Co-hosts Switzerland get the tournament under way against the Czech Republic in Basel on 7 June, before fellow co-hosts Austria begin their Group B campaign the following day in Vienna. Comprehensive profiles of each player with all the latest statistics will be available on www.euro2008.com
